

News Release

May 11, 2013

Government
of South Australia

Department of Environment,
Water and Natural Resources

Park closures due to bushfire

Two conservation parks in the Adelaide Hills and sections of the Heyson Trail are closed due to the bushfire in Cherryville.

The Kenneth Stirling Conservation Park which crosses Balhannah and Cherryville and Montacute Conservation Park at Montacute closed yesterday in the interests of public safety.

Sections of the Heyson Trail in the vicinity of Cherryville are now also closed.

For more information on the current bushfire in the Adelaide Hills near Cherryville please visit the CFS website: <http://www.cfs.sa.gov.au> or phone the Bushfire Information Hotline on 1300 362 361.

Media contact

Lynne Hare

Media Manager

Department of Environment,
Water and Natural Resources

Mobile: 0477 319 615

www.environment.sa.gov.au